North Greenville University
General Workstudy Policies

Effective: Fall 2010

• Family members may not work together as supervisor/workstudy.

• Students who are not eligible for undergraduate workstudy include: High School Release, Graduate Students, or students previously dismissed from the workstudy program.

• International students must have a social security card in order to work. They may obtain a letter from the Workstudy Coordinator to pursue a card.

Effective: Fall 2012

• Students who are dismissed from the workstudy program have three days from the date of dismissal to appeal the decision to the Workstudy Coordinator in writing. The appeal will be considered with the Vice-President of the corresponding area.

Any questions regarding this policy should be directed to the NGU Workstudy Coordinator.
