

Church Related Vocation Scholarship Recommendation Form

The Church Related Vocation Scholarship of $1,500 is offered to full-time new incoming students that desire to use their education in a church related vocation.

Important Guidelines

- To qualify for this scholarship, a full-time student must plan to pursue a church related vocation upon graduation. A one-page autobiography including the student's personal testimony and a statement describing their call to Christian service must be submitted with the application.
- For the application to be considered, the student must contact their church and have a pastor, youth pastor, or ministry staff member complete the Church Recommendation form. The recommendation form should be submitted directly to NGU.
- The completed scholarship application and recommendation form must be submitted by the first day of the semester for consideration.
