

Ordering text books:

Text book information will be available on the NGU website approximately 1 month before class begins. ISBN #'s will be available through the student portal. An email containing instructions for accessing this information will be sent to the student's NGU email address.

Text books may be rented or purchased through the NGU website:

Go to www.ngu.edu

Click home tab

Click on campus (3rd column across top)

Click University Store

You may rent text books by clicking the rent and save banner and following directions.

To purchase text books click books and textbooks and course materials and follow directions.

If you have a book voucher you will choose "pay later" at the end of your order

Please place the order in the student's name.

Textbooks will only be shipped for graduate students and for on-line students. All other orders will be picked up at the University Post Office after the student arrives at North Greenville. A picture ID must be presented to pick up books. Students are not required to purchase books from NGU.
