MISSION

North Greenville University exists to glorify God by cultivating graduates who are equipped to serve as transformational leaders for church and society.

Affiliated with and committed to the South Carolina Baptist Convention, North Greenville University is a co-educational liberal arts institution that provides opportunities for higher education in a Christian atmosphere. The university strives to prepare students to become better, contributing members of society by educating the whole person through an integration of academic discipline, a Christian lifestyle, and an enriched cultural experience while offering students the best opportunities for spiritual growth, academic training, and Christian service. Christ must be the center of the campus for the purpose of Christian education and Christian character-building. North Greenville University offers a quality education in a biblically sound, Christ-centered environment.

IDENTITY

We are real change agents

Grounded in the South Carolina Baptist Convention and Southern Baptist life, we are faculty, students, staff and alumni connected by a common gift for creating real change in our own lives and the lives of others. This is where the best-and-brightest minds in Christian education are training a new generation of leaders and critical thinkers who connect personal faith to powerful, faith-driven change.

PURPOSE

Because growth takes perspective

It takes a better vantage point. North Greenville has tools that teach and theories that transform lives and careers for Christ – all set in one of the most desirable locations in the Southeastern United States. This is a place where you can see new ideas up close – and learn how to communicate them in a way that is rooted in faith.

BRAND

WHAT IS A BRAND?

A brand is a statement of shared beliefs about who we are, how we're different and why we're unique. We use that statement of shared beliefs to form the basis for all our marketing and communications.

A STRONG BRAND HELPS US:

- + Demonstrate our common purpose and identity
- + Enhance North Greenville University's reputation, set us apart from our competitors, create awareness and establish relevance with our audiences.
- + Create a strong public image, including clarity and consistency

When our communications are visually integrated, they present our diverse institution as a well-organized, singularly focused whole. And when our communications are of a high caliber, they convey that North Greenville University provides students an educational experience that also is high caliber.

It is not just what we say about the university—it is also what other people say, feel, and believe about the university. Our brand is our promise to constituents and stakeholders about the complete experience they will have when they engage with North Greenville University. Each of us is responsible for keeping and strengthening our promises to our current and prospective students, alumni, parents, community, donors, and our many other constituents.

BRAND

WHY UNIFORMITY MATTERS

Branding is a process of using marketing and communications to influence attitudes toward and perceptions of our brand. Every day, thousands of people see communications and marketing materials from North Greenville University: business cards, correspondence, brochures, admissions materials, reports, magazines, websites, presentations, event invitations, posters, forms and applications, building and vehicle signs, apparel, and gift items.

HOW DOES THIS PROTECT THE NGU BRAND?

- + A brand forms the basis of people's long-lasting attitudes and opinions about the university.
- + A strong brand identifies our communications and helps them create positive attitudes and opinions.
- + The consistent application of our brand, visual identity, and style differentiates North Greenville University from similar organizations and expresses the university's unique qualities in a way that creates a clear, positive, and memorable expression.

WHY NORTH GREENVILLE NEEDS AN IDENTITY BRAND GUIDE

- + All of the marketing and communications materials the university generates provide specific information.
- + Each piece projects an overall image of the university.
- + Visual identity guidelines unify our communications and help make this image clear, consistent and intentional.
- + These standards also increase the overall quality of printed pieces and make the production of marketing items easier, faster, and less costly.

Christ Makes the Difference

The Circle: The world. Our mission field. Our scope.

The Burst: The light of the world. The truth. The fire of the presence of the Holy Spirit.

The Bible: The one true way to know the will of God. Inescapable in its proclamation, bottomless in its depths. From this book of books, and all other knowledge is grounded and tested.

The Cross: A foolish stumbling block to some, the very power of God to those who believe. The symbol of sacrifice, hope, and eternal life.

The Pulpit/Lectern/Torch: The strong traditions of chapel messages, the imagery of the instructing professor, and the torch of knowledge are all wrapped up in this image when viewed as a single element.

North Greenville: Whether as North Greenville Academy, North Greenville Junior College, or North Greenville College, this light in the dark corner of South Carolina has always been a mission effort. And in the vernacular, “North Greenville” is who we are. The slight slope to the letters included in the vertical logo speaks to moving to, and greetings from the school.

University: The recent growth of the higher educational college to our present university level.

The Slogan: Our hope is that Christ impacts everything we do as a university.

LOGOS AND GUIDELINES

THESE GUIDELINES HAVE BEEN DEVELOPED TO ENSURE THE UNIFORMITY AND PRESERVATION OF NORTH GREENVILLE UNIVERSITY'S VISUAL IDENTITY. IF ADDITIONAL CLARIFICATION OR GUIDANCE IS REQUIRED ON THE PROPER USE OF THE NORTH GREENVILLE UNIVERSITY NAME OR BRAND ELEMENTS, PLEASE CONTACT THE UNIVERSITY MARKETING TEAM.

LOGO STANDARDIZATION

In alignment with our commitment to upholding the North Greenville University brand, it is important that all university units, including offices, departments, and programs, adhere to the established visual identity. This entails limited flexibility in creating new logos, which must harmoniously align with the overarching NGU brand. Requests for developing new logos or graphic elements must be submitted to University Marketing for review and approval.

PRESERVING LOGO INTEGRITY

The North Greenville University logos must remain true to their original form and proportion. This adherence to logo integrity is fundamental to preserving the strength and recognition of the North Greenville University brand.

UNIVERSITY ICON

UNIVERSITY LOGO - HORIZONTAL

NORTH GREENVILLE

UNIVERSITY LOGO - VERTICAL

NORTH GREENVILLE

CLEARSPACE

The minimum clear space is defined as X, measured by the width of the letter “n” in the NGU logo or the width of the pulpit/torch. Try to maximize clear space whenever possible. A good margin helps the logo stand out.

NGU LOGO MINIMUM SIZE

The minimum width of the NGU logo is 21px on screen or 0.25in (6.35mm) in print. If the logo (“Vertical” or “Horizontal”) can’t be used and be legible, then default to the icon. If the icon becomes too small to be more discernible than a blackish dot, then it might be better to only use “North Greenville” and “Christ Makes the Difference” in the body of your publication.

LOGO VARIATIONS

STANDARD VERTICAL

STANDARD HORIZONTAL

ICON

IDENTIFIER

This variation is to be used in conjunction with department names, university colleges, and majors.

LOGO USAGE

THE NGU LOGO ON BACKGROUND COLORS AND PHOTOS

Ideally, the logo is to be used on a white background for maximum impact and clarity. When this is not possible, choose background colors or photos that provide sufficient contrast with the logo. Contrast is the key. If you blur your eyes or view the layout from across the room, can you see the logo reasonably well? If not, then try another approach.

LOGO USAGE

FOLLOW THESE GUIDELINES WHEN WORKING WITH THE NGU LOGO.

Do not use any logo as a watermark.

Do not place a white box around the logo. Instead, use a proper white version of the logo on colored backgrounds. Below is an example of a white box around the logo on a colored background.

LOGO USAGE

Do not place text over any part of the logo, including the icon.

Do not change the colors of the logo.

UNIVERSITY SEAL

North Greenville University Seal

The North Greenville University seal, adopted in 1992, holds significant symbolism. At its core, it features a radiant burst of light, symbolizing NGU, resting upon the Bible. The Bible placed atop a podium with a centered cross, embodies our mission: to be a beacon in the darkness, guiding others towards Christ, firmly rooted in the truths of the Bible, and centered on Christ Himself. The historical reference to the Tigerville area as the “Dark Corner” underscores our transformation into a place where students come to immerse themselves in God’s Word, preparing to serve Christ in their chosen vocations.

Usage of the NGU Seal

The North Greenville University seal is reserved for official and formal use, including binding legal agreements, formal documents such as diplomas, transcripts, major institutional reports, research covers, and programs for academic ceremonies. Additionally, it may appear on approved signage, formal invitations, and engraved notecards. Selected apparel and gift items bearing the seal are available through proper licensing. For inquiries or permission to use the seal, contact the Office of University Marketing.

Slogan: “Christ Makes the Difference”

The slogan “Christ Makes the Difference” is a central element of our identity. It can be employed in various formats but is mandatory on external formal documents like letterhead, envelopes, business cards, and recruitment materials.

The NGU Sword Logo is the alternate logo of North Greenville athletics.

CENTERS AND INSTITUTES LOGOS

University centers and institutes are different from most campus units because of the overlap between our education, mission, and institutional usage.

CUSTOM LOGOS

TO STRENGTHEN THE UNIVERSITY'S BRAND IDENTITY, CREATION OF CUSTOM LOGOS IS RESTRICTED.

The North Greenville University logo serves as the official mark of our institution. The university identifiers offer academic colleges, departments, programs, and administrative offices a means to establish their identity and affiliation with the University.

Academic colleges, departments, majors, and administrative offices are not authorized to utilize unique logos. Exceptions for custom logos within other campus units are only granted in rare instances.

Custom logo development will be considered exclusively under the following circumstances:

- + when an external grant or partnership necessitates a distinct logo
- + upon establishing a new unit (such as a center or institute)
- + in the case of a unique university-wide initiative
- + for special university-sponsored events

If your situation falls into one of the categories mentioned above, contact the Office of University Marketing to discuss your requirements. All custom logos must conform to the University's fundamental design and brand standards and either be created by or receive approval from the Office of University Marketing.

UNIQUE LOGOS

STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS AND DEPARTMENT CLUBS MAY CREATE THEIR OWN LOGOS OR CONTINUE USE OF EXISTING LOGOS TO IDENTIFY THEIR ORGANIZATION.

Logos designed by student organizations are subject to a review and approval by the Office of University Marketing.

Student organization and department club logos are expected to adhere to the following set of standards:

- + The logo should not include or incorporate the NGU icon unless explicit approval is granted by the Office of University Marketing.
- + The logo must avoid any words, symbols, or images that could potentially cast a negative light on the university.
- + Altering the proportions, redesigning, redrawing, distorting, or modifying the NGU icon or logo is strictly prohibited.
- + Changing the size or positional relationship of any element within the NGU icon or logo is not permitted.
- + Additional text or copy cannot be added to the icon or logo.
- + Utilizing any part of the icon as a component of another word is also prohibited.

The use of their organization's logo alongside the University logo is allowable for student organizations and department clubs only when authorized by the Office of University Marketing.

PROJECTS

LEAD TIMES

We strive to process all project requests efficiently and effectively. Under normal circumstances, most projects can be completed within two weeks. However, depending on the scope of your project and the volume of projects already in progress, your completion timeline may be extended.

PRINTING AND COPYING

The university maintains a central print shop, which can accommodate most small-and large-quantity copy needs. All print and design requests must come through the Office of University Marketing at go.ngu.edu/umproject. Completed projects can be picked up at the Office of University Marketing in the Eddie Runion Creative Arts Center at 7800 N. Tigerville Rd.

For information on print procedures, contact the PrintHub at 864.977.7051.

IMAGERY/PHOTOGRAPHY

The Office of University Marketing maintains a repository of campus photography, which is accessible to university offices for use in publications, websites and print materials. The office can also arrange for original photography for your event or publication.

To request photography services, complete the request form on the University Marketing web page or go.ngu.edu/umproject.

PROJECTS

WEBSITE

For questions regarding the website, visit go.ngu.edu/umproject.

APPAREL/MERCHANDISE

All requests for producing apparel using the official university logo must be reviewed by the Office of University Marketing and follow the trademark and licensing guidelines. University Marketing will assist in ordering apparel and merchandise. Requests can be made through the online form at go.ngu.edu/umproject or by email at umacs@ngu.edu. Gifts and other official merchandise from licensed vendors can be purchased through the North Greenville University bookstore at go.ngu.edu/bookstore.

CO-BRANDING

Co-branding involves using both the North Greenville University wordmark and another organization's logo on the same materials. Care should be taken in these instances not to diminish the North Greenville University identity. For questions about when and how to co-brand materials and for review of co-branded materials produced by other organizations, e-mail your request to Office of University Marketing at umacs@ngu.edu (with an electronic copy of the project, if appropriate).

PROJECT ASSISTANCE

The Office of University Marketing is composed of experienced staff members with expertise in marketing, media relations, publications, writing, design, advertising, website creation, and other communications. The staff is here to help North Greenville University and its departments and programs achieve their marketing and communications goals. The staff members can handle projects from start to finish, or they can provide advice, recommendations, and consultation.

In most cases, there is no charge for marketing and design services, but departments are responsible for photography, print, production, and possibly design service fees depending on the project. Cost estimates can be provided before work begins.

Although some projects have tighter deadlines, we request that all new projects are given a two-week lead time. If you have a design project that is needed within a quick turnaround of less than a week, design will be put into the layout templates provided by the UM team. Under no circumstance should a last minute project be created without these templates.

All design projects should go through the University Marketing web page at go.ngu.edu/umproject.

OFFICE OF COMMUNICATIONS

The Office of Communications is the primary contact and information source for print, online, and broadcast news media and media-related issues. The staff is available to work with faculty and staff to publicize the university achievements, initiatives, and work. The Office of Communications can provide advice and guidance to employees about best practices used to send and share news, as well as how to respond to media questions.

The Office of Communications is responsible for developing communication strategies, disseminating news, responding to requests for expert commentary, and providing information to the media about North Greenville University people, programs, events, and activities. The office also advises faculty and administration on policy issues that affect public perception of the university.

The Office of Communications should be contacted before any information is released to the media concerning internal or external matters that affect the university. The university president serves as North Greenville University's general media spokesperson.

MEDIA RELATIONS SERVICES

The Office of Communications serves the campus community by increasing public awareness of the university and enhancing the institution's image. The Office assists departments and offices in effectively communicating information about programs, awards, achievements, news, and events. The Office of Communications provides the following services:

- + Coordination of interviews and media visits for faculty, staff, and students
- + Coordination of press conferences and other media events
- + Preparation and dissemination of university press releases
- + Assistance with opinion/editorial writing, talking points, and remarks
- + Publicity for university events, speakers, activities, awards, honors, and achievements
- + Management of crisis communications and media responses
- + Publications of North Greenville University
- + Campus distribution of current media summaries and maintenance of the news archives
- + Print and broadcast media training for faculty and staff
